Resident Council News

The McClure Place Residents Association Inc. Bylaw states: "This Bylaw is to be reviewed every five years or more frequently if deemed necessary." Council has undertaken a review of the Bylaw in the last year and has approved extensive changes. Two copies of the Proposed Changes to the Bylaw document are available on the Council Bulletin Board. All residents are encouraged to read the document and return it to the Bulletin Board in a timely manner.

Think Winter...

Various Christmas outings in December have been posted outside of the Recreation Office.
These outings include:
