Business:

We have a fun creative opportunity on our horizon! Our friends at Makers Space reached out looking for participants for a pilot program. They are looking for 12 participants. 4 people would go to a painting class, 4 to a pottery class, and 4 to a woodworking class. Each class is three hours (say 9-12) one day a week, for 4 weeks. At the end of the 4 weeks, the potters have finished things to take home, the wood workers have things to take home and the painters have things to take home. There are professional teachers ready to teach beginners. The executive Director of makers space is in my pottery class and asked us first. If we can't fill the classes, we will ask other communities. The McClure Bus will drive you there and pick you up, and they are in the process of obtaining grant money from Dakota Dunes to pay the teachers, so the entire program would be free! They have all the equipment – you would only have to bring your creativity and curiosity! This is an amazing opportunity! Erin will have a sign up sheet by her office as soon as we have firm dates to offer. Think about it!

Greg and Hayden (our maintenance helper) will be coming to every suite in the next few weeks to determine which suites need a CO monitor. Every suite in this building needs to have a CO monitor installed according to the new Henry's law. It will be a quick check and then we will be ordering and installing all the detectors that we require.

Marcel and Audrey Bertrand are taking possession of suite 1104 Wednesday! Welcome Audrey and Marcel!

Personal:

Poor old Leonard decided to pick something up off the ground on one of his walks 10 days ago and paid for it dearly for the next four days. I believe the vet said the official diagnosis was 'indiscriminate garbage guts'. He was up all night two nights in a row... which meant I was sleeping on the couch to accommodate his frequent visits to the back yard. He was so tired and depleted on Saturday that he didn't even bark when we had visitors! He cleared all garbage from his guts and is right as rain now. Silly little goober!
